

What I Learned from Publishing an Edited Manuscript

Speaker John Fry

Laura & Earle Smith left Iowa in 1913 to build a life on the frontier, homesteading in Wyoming.

Historian John Fry (UI PhD, 2002) will speak about discovering Laura's memoir while doing research in the Iowa Women's Archives and the long trail to getting it published. Fry is chair of the History Department at Trinity Christian College.

Fri, Sept 20, 2013 10:00-11:00 a.m.

Iowa Women's Archives, UI Main Library

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa-sponsored events. If you are a person with a disability who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Iowa Women's Archives in advance at 319-335-5068.